

Development of export activities of Prodomus Sp. z o.o. by performing the promotion within “The branch of medical devices promotion program”

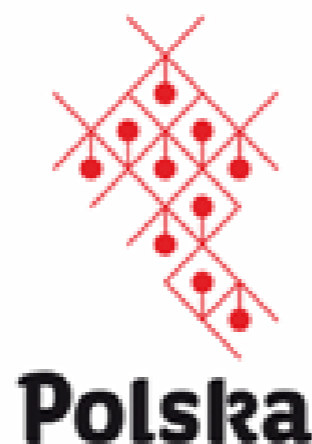

The aim of this project is the participation of Prodomus Sp. z o.o. in the medical devices promotion program. The program consist of several fair and exhibition event, the company participates as the exhibitor or a visitor within the trade mission scheme. Moreover the company is going to purchase professional advisory services to create a comprehensive strategy of entering prospective markets and a suitable information and promotion campaign.

The promotional activities of the project concern the prospective markets “The branch of medical devices promotion program”.

EU co-financing of the project: 482 875,86 PLN

European Funds
Smart Growth

Polska

European Union
European Regional Development Fund

www.mapadotacji.gov.pl